

This week at FPC

July 5—July 11, 2023

I am excited about our Vacation Bible School which starts next week, July 10. There is still space for volunteers and for children to participate. See details about both on the church website at www.fpcocala.org or call the church for more information. Families may walk-up and register their children Monday morning at 8:30, but pre-registration makes planning much easier for our leaders.

There will be a meeting of VBS volunteers following worship on July 9 in the conference room of the church office.

In the fall we will restart our church nursery. Think about ways you can help by volunteering and assisting our CE committee. Watch this space for a sign-up sheet. Isn't it exciting we have families with little ones coming to church!

The video recording of July 2nd's worship is a little late this week with the holiday, but look for it to appear soon. I hope you had a wonderful Independence Day and the fireworks weren't too loud on Tuesday evening. They were loud in my neighborhood. Our nation's birthday is worth celebrating.
