Way Forward Report Comes to Session

Rev. Dr. Dan Holloway, our church consultant, will be with us for the last time on Sunday. He will be making his final report to the Session and Way Forward Committee. Please pray for our elected church leaders as they absorb his many recommendations and set the church on a course to implement them.

I'm excited about the many things our church is already doing and the plans for the end of Lent,

Holy Week, and beyond. The Bible study (mentioned below) has been remarkable stimulating. Our adult and children's Sunday School and youth group are going well. We are planning a confirmation class (also below) this spring. God is at work at First Presbyterian, please keep praying and find a way you can volunteer and help us move forward.
