

This week at FPC

May 12—May 18, 2022

Dear Church Family,

Thank you again for your participation in the survey and signing up for listening sessions. Our consultant, Dan Holloway, will be meeting with members this weekend in those sessions to find out more about our congregation so that he might assist us with our way forward as a congregation.

We continue to worship in person with masks optional at 10:00 a.m. as well as online each week. I hope and pray that you are being spiritually fed by such worship.

I am pleased to announce that we will be resuming Vacation Bible School this year! It will be a bit different as we step cautiously into the future, from June 28-30, a three day event. Please call the church office or Casey Miller if you would like to volunteer to help.

In these still peculiar times, let us turn to the scriptures for strength and guidance: "Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus." (Philippians 4:4-6)

So don't worry. Be gentle with one another. The Lord is near.

Grace and Peace, Ron
